

CIVIL TRADE

How to Buy:

Civilians holding Arms Licence are allowed to purchase only Non-Prohibited Bore (NPB) category weapons. Officers and other employees of the Armed Forces can also purchase these weapons if they obtain the Arms Licence from the Licensing Authorities. Sale of these weapons is done strictly as per the provisions of the Arms Act, 1959 and the Arms Rules, 1962.

1. Sale through Arms Dealers: Following NPB Arms are sold through the licensed arms dealers spread across the country. A customer can contact any dealer near to his place for his requirements.
2. Direct Sale from Factory: A customer has to book an order by applying in prescribed application form. Forms can be obtained from the factory or printed from this website through links given in Download Menu. Weapons are issued as per serial of booking and have to be collected personally from the factory. Factory intimates the customer in advance the date of collection and other formalities to be completed for purchase of weapon. Civil Trade section of the factory should be contacted for any query or assistance in purchase of the weapon.

Following documents are required for issue of weapons:-

- Original valid arms licence showing entitlement for the weapons with valid date and valid purchase period date; if in other language, should be translated in English or Hindi and attested.
- Two self attested photocopies of the same licence.
- Two copies of No Objection Certificate (NOC) from Licensing Authority- one copy for factory and other copy for Civil Authorities.
- Transport Licence (T/L) from Civil Authorities of the place where factory is located.
- In case your licence is valid for All India or for the state where factory is located, then No Objection Certificate & Transport Licence are NOT required.

Weapons will not be issued on authority. However, delivery is permissible on behalf of the customer only to RETAINER. In that case, the name of the retainer must be endorsed in the Arms Licence along with passport size photo duly stamped/countersigned by the licensing authority. The retainer must also bring from the customer an authority letter for collecting the weapon, wherein the retainer's signature is attested by the customer.
